Looking back on the past years,
remembering . . .
the times,

the people, best buddies,
old flames, the friends who stuck with us and those who faded into only a memory.

Remembering . . .
the late night homework,
meeting deadlines, English themes, chemistry labs, history notebooks, math problems and pop tests . . .
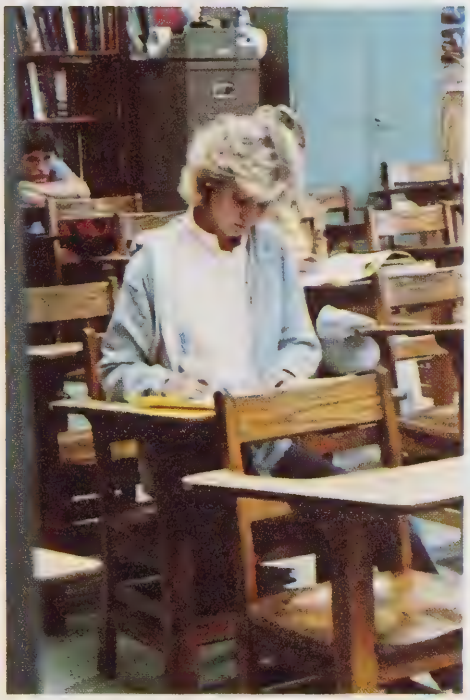
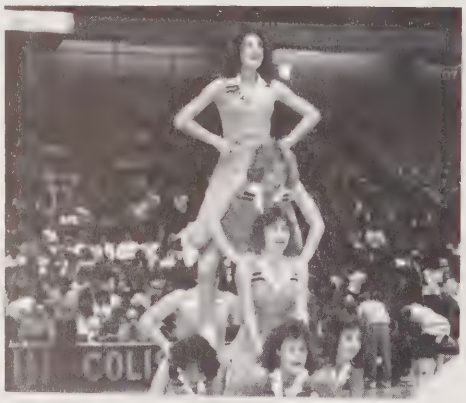
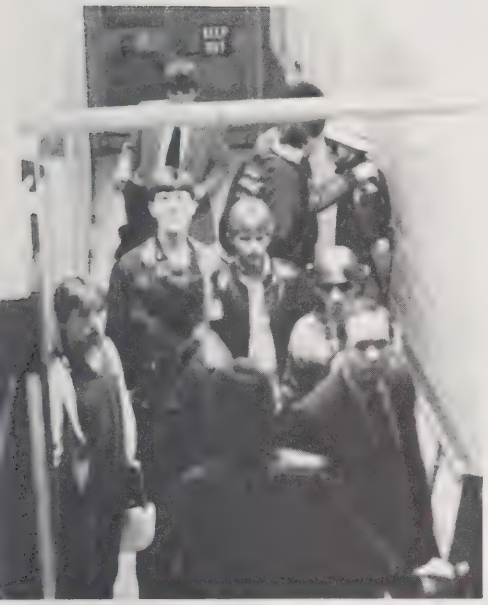
these were the best of times.



WELCOME!





Remembering . . .
the ballgames and track meets, glorious victories
and heartbreaking defeats, cheering fans,
"All the Way to State."
. . . these were the best of times.

Remembering . . .
the buildings in which we spent so many hours,
Edneyville School.

EHS has been an opportunity . . .
an opportunity to learn,
to expand our minds
to their limits,
to grow from a child
to a young adult, to find who
and what we are, to prepare for the outside world

Remembering the past and looking forward to the future . . .
who is to decide where one ends and the other begins?
Living the present . . .
these are the best of times.

Now, we must look ahead . . .
life is learning, growing,
reaching out all the time.
We must look ahead for these are the best of times.

Homecoming Week 1985 proved to be full of excitement and spirit. The theme for the week was "Back to the Jacket Future." The theme for the dance which ended Homecoming was "Forever." The week started off on Monday with "Let's Get Physical Day," followed by "50's Day," "Backwards Day," "Kiddie Day," and "Black and Gold Day." A successful and spirited bon-fire was held on Tuesday night, and the pep rally followed field day on Friday. The sophomore class and ninth grade led the enthusiasm by winning the most spirited for the week. The seniors and seventh grade put up a good fight to come in second. The juniors and eighth grade came in third. The Yellow Jackets came out Friday night ready to play ball and defeated Polk Central 12-8. Cindy Hill was crowned Homecoming Queen during the half-time ceremony of the football game.

JUNIOR/SENIOR

Can't Fight This Feeling

JUNIOR-SENIOR

After weeks of searching for a place to have the Junior-Senior and then a last minute change, the Prom was held at the Asheville Civic Center. When the big night finally arrived, the decorations were overshadowed by the handsome young men and beautiful young ladies in their extravagant suits and gowns. The theme, "Can't Fight This Feeling," became a reality as the band played and the students danced and dreamed.

SUMMER'S TRAIL

Can he still be on summer's trail, where angels watch over him without fail.
Does he say, yes, Mom, how are you today, I'll come back, Mom, when I can forever stay.

My summer's trail is so long it seems, I'll keep walking, Dad, till I find you once again. We can climb the highest mountains, go as far as we can go, keep on guard from old satan, for I hate the devil so.

I know that you love me, Mom, Dad, Adele, and all my folks, remember how we laughed and talked and shared so many jokes. But I must keep climbing on my way, I hope you'll be by my side in thoughts today.

So, Mom, I'll stop now, I've found my resting place, I can bow my head and thank the Lord forever for his grace. Come on Mom, smile awhile, don't be so sad; when you meet me tomorrow on summer's trail, we will both be so glad.

In Memory of Van Crocker, who was a great boy, and who will never be forgotten. September 17, 1985.

August 26, 1985, signified different things to different people. To the seniors it meant the beginning of the end of Edneyville High School.

Our years together at EHS have been good years. Looking back, we are reminded of all the fun we had on our way to becoming seniors.

It seems so long ago when we were seventh graders. We wandered the halls in awe, curiosity and excitement. We struggled to find our place in a new environment.

The next year our struggle continued as we spent the year making friends and learning about ourselves. We enjoyed ourselves on our 8th grade Raleigh trip.

Before we knew it we were freshmen. EHS no longer seemed so frightening, and we felt at home. For the first time we were able to choose our own classes.

As we became sophomores, we gained our pass to freedom — the driver's license. Some of us decided it was time to start working, others made commitments to the books and sports. This was the year we were State Basketball Champs.

Our junior year came with thoughts of class rings and the Junior-Senior — "I Can't Fight This Feeling" was our theme. Through all our work together, we learned just how special our class really was.

Now, we are finally seniors. The fact that graduation is approaching is foremost in our thoughts.

Get off of me, McPherson!!!

Lunch is 'so' exciting!

The senior class enjoyed the day re-painting the rock.

CLASSES

JUNIOR CLASS

With the Scholastic Aptitude Test to prepare for and the Junior-Senior to plan, juniors were busy. Most juniors felt that this was their hardest year taking such courses as chemistry, Spanish, algebra II and accounting. It was also a fun year with such activities as ordering class rings, comparing them once they arrived and planning the Junior-Senior. A major goal for juniors was to raise money for that one mystical enchanted evening of the year, the Junior-Senior. Juniors began to think of after school jobs and choosing a college. The juniors stuck together, though, and began to look forward to that day when they would become seniors.

The sophomores were active this year. For the first time the sophomores won Spirit Week during Homecoming. The sophomores were also involved by joining clubs, playing on a team, or just being a loyal Yellow Jacket.

The one event most memorable about being a sophomore was getting the driver's license ... most sophomores could finally drive on their own. This freedom opened the door to part-time jobs, car dates, cruising around town and driving to school.

The year was a good one, but the sophomores soon began to look forward to becoming upperclassmen.

Changing classes and choosing subjects introduce the freshman to the world of Edneyville High School. In the lapse of a year most freshmen discover an entirely new and different person within themselves. After a year of history, agriculture, physical science, math and P.E., freshmen emerge with a new attitude. Their next three years will be spent developing this new outlook. Now, finally, the student feels that he is an active part of Edneyville High School.

Although it wasn't a good year from the won-/loss standpoint, the '85 Yellowjackets were a very competitive football team. Outside of the West, Mitchell and Rosman games, where a lack of depth and injuries were the significant factor, the Jackets played even-up with everyone else on the schedule. The senior leadership was excellent. Four of the seniors made All-County and All-Conference: Brian Johnson, running back; Tommy Cox, defensive back; Keith McPherson, offensive line; and Tim Wilkie, tight/end receiver. This football team played with a lot of courage and determination.

Although they did not reach all of the goals they set for themselves, they were proud of the effort they gave all season; and the school and community was proud of them as well. A lot of talented young players will return from this team for next season, and there is no reason not to expect next year's team to be even more competitive in the Appalachian 1-A Conference.

Coaches King and Smothers walking the sidelines.

The J.V.Football team ended their season with a 2-4 record. The win-loss record does not indicate the true story of the season. In spite of four losses the team enjoyed a good season under the leadership of Coach Wade King and Coach William Smothers.

The number of players on the team indicated the interest, high spirit and desire for a successful season.

Good leadership was shown on both the offensive and defensive units. The offense was led by quarterback Mike Hollman and running backs Skip Welty and Bobby Hill. The offensive line provided fine blocking to spring the backs. The defensive attack was led by David Heatherly.

The young men from the J.V. team will be heard from in the future as they move up to the YellowJacket varsity squad.

VARSITY BOYS BASKETBALL

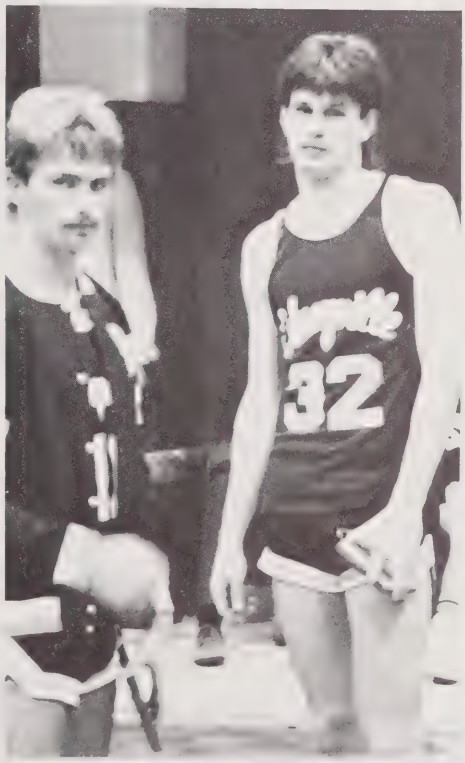
After ten games the YellowJackets posted a 6-4 (0-1) record against some extremely tough competition. The Jackets have posted wins over 3-A East Henderson, West Henderson, East Rutherford (two wins), 2-A Sylva Webster and Swain.

The YellowJackets averaged 65.9 points per game while their opponents scored 64.8 points per game. The team was led in scoring by Larry Stepp (21.3 points per game), Rodney Dalton (18.4 points per game) and Todd Moss (16.8 points per game).

One of the bright spots for the Jackets has been their free throw percentage, which was 72% for the team. Todd Moss had the best percentage at 86%, and he was followed by Larry Stepp at 80%. Rodney Dalton led the team in steals with 27 and was followed by Brian Johnson with 21.

The two point conference loss to Hendersonville put the Jackets in a must win situation in the conference race. The rest of the season should be full of excitement as the conference race continues.



VARSITY GIRLS BASKETBALL

Lisa, Charlene, and Mandy coming off after a good effort.

After advancing to the State 1-A Finals for the past two years, a lot was expected from Coach Tom Pryor and his 1985-86 girls' basketball team.

The season started off slow, but with Coach Pryor's excellent coaching, the team's confidence and unity began to build. After realizing that hard work pays off and that this was their final year to prove it, the four starting seniors, Cindy Hill, Lynn Griffin, Jennifer Ray and Rene Laughter, began to lead their team to victory and express the true meaning of team power. Amy Freeman, a sophomore, also contributed greatly in scoring and rebounding.

With strong determination and immense effort, the girls could finish this season a repeat of the last two.

The Junior Varsity Boys' Basketball team returned only two players this year from last season's winning team. With much hard work and effort, they finished the season in the win column once again. Robert Merrell, Rocky Davis, Kip Taylor, Scott Rhodes, and Phillip Taylor were the starting five for the J.V.'s. They showed poise and leadership all season and will certainly add their part to next year's varsity team. The J.V.'s should also look forward to a successful team next year because of the strong bench made up of all freshmen. The team was coached by Tim Davis.

The Junior Varsity Girls' Basketball team did really well this year at keeping up the winning tradition of EHS under the coaching of Lisa Rhodes. Led by Tammy Lyda, Sharon Laughter, Kellie Kruez, Penny Maxwell, and Tonya Lyda, they had a near perfect season. At the mid-season they had only one loss (by two points to a much larger Mt. Heritage). These girls have shown plenty of desire and hustle and will be heard from on future EHS teams.

After completing a successful season against conference opponents under Coach Angie Mull, the '85 Yellow Jacket softball team advanced as far as the second round in the State play-offs. Advancing this far in one season took the girls further than any other team in any other year. Led by the pitching of Tina Blackwell and the hitting of Lynn Griffin and Tina, the girls easily defeated Murphy in the first round of the State play-offs. Their loss in the second round was to Robinsville.

The Yellow Jackets are looking forward to a strong '86 season since all but one player will be returning.

The 1985 baseball team won the Appalachian Conference. They compiled a 9-3 record and a 13-11 overall record. The team was defeated 5-2 in the first round of play-offs by Andrews, the 1985 State 1-A runner-up. The Yellow Jackets were led by seniors David Hartsook, Joe Clark, Randy Ballinger, Scott Burrell, Bob Grindstaff and Dan Justus. The future of Edneyville baseball looks good with Scott Rhodes, Phillip Taylor, Scott Hill, Tommy Cox, Tim Wilkie and Dennis McCann all returning. Coach King should have reason to look for another winning season.

Where's the ground?

David Freeman flying high!

This year was an excellent year for the track team. The Jacket runners won the conference championship easily on the efforts of David Freeman, Dean Duncan and Freddy Lyda. David and Dean also competed in the Regionals and Sectional meet. Dean finished second in the state meet at Raleigh in the 1600 meter race. David Freeman broke the school's pole vault's record with a jump of 13'6".

VARSITY GIRLS TRACK

Track is a very competitive sport which very few choose to participate in because of its difficulty. Through very hard work and practices, the dedicated girls on the Varsity Girls' Track Team took several first place finishes in every meet. The girls finished their season with a conference championship under Coach Debbie Rhymer.

The Edneyville High School Band had a very successful year. The band was involved in two marching band competitions. The first competition the band attended was held at Enka High School. The band received a rating of excellent. The band then attended another competition that was held in Alcoa, Tennessee. The band received a rating of superior. This was the first time the band had ever received the highest honor possible. Every member of the band had been striving for this moment since summer camp.

The Marching Band was not the only band that had a successful year. The Jazz Band, now in its fourth year, has been very popular throughout Edneyville. The Jazz Band has played at most of the home basketball games, played at a rest-home for Christmas, and attended the Brevard Jazz Band Festival for the third season.

The Concert Band has also had a good year. The Concert Band participated in many concerts and contests throughout the year. Several band members worked on the side for All-State Tryouts to participate in the annual All-State Band. Some members also participated in Western's Honors Band.

All the hard work from band camp and after school rehersals had finally paid off.

Newspaper Staff, 1st and 2nd Semester

Newspaper Staff is made-up of students interested in publishing a monthly newspaper for EHS. The staff changes at mid-year, and one-half credit is offered for the course. Selection for the staff is by student interest.

This year the newspaper staff published, through Shopper's Guide, eight issues of The BeeLine, four each semester.

This is the first year that EHS has had a separate newspaper class for the publication of The BeeLine. Ads had to be sold, articles written and re-written, art work done, and lay-out completed in order for the paper to get out on time each month.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Penny Rathburn, Devery Taylor, John Laughter, Amy Freeman, Dawn Przybyszewski, William Burch, Lisa Edney, Tina Blackwell, Kim Barnwell, Lee Dalton, Miss Edwards (sponsor), Victor Corn.

The 1985-86 Yearbook Staff was made up of students who used their time and talents to publish a yearbook that will hold memories for years to come for the student body of EHS. With deadlines to meet, pictures to be made and layout sheets to be drawn, the yearbook staff feels that this year's yearbook will be one of the biggest and best ever. One of the things that allowed them to meet all deadlines on time was the help and cooperation of the student body and faculty.

Yearbook staff members are selected by interest and by a faculty committee.

POETRY

WHEN WE SAY GOODBYE

We shed a tear when we say goodbye for all the years that cannot die.
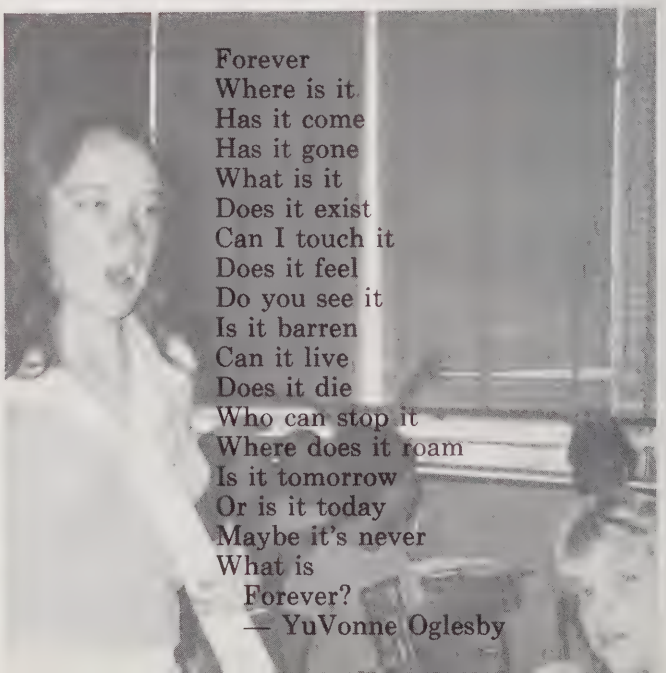
We laughed, we cried, we smiled awhile,
but now we're on our own.
No mothers, no fathers to take our hand
To lead us to our own dream land.
It's up to us; for all we know,
Some will make it, and some won't go.
The goals that we've had in store,
bring us a dream, we share no more.
The struggle,
The pain,
The study,
The fear,
All of this we cannot lose.
The door is opening for us now,
We must achieve, before we bow.
The last few years have been a war.
Yet, now we are free to close the door.
— Cathy Bingold



Forever
Where is it
Has it come
Has it gone
What is it Does it exist
Can I touch it Does it feel
Do you see it
Is it barren
Can it live
Does it die
Who can stop it
Where does it roam
Is it tomorrow
Or is it today
Maybe it's never
What is Forever?
— YuVonne Oglesby

SISTER

She is thoughtful, yet understanding, knowing me so well that she helps me show my inner thoughts and helps me grow through them. Always happy and making me happy, laughing and feeling so close to her. She protects me, and cares enough to say while looking softly with her glowing green eyes and her cheerfully red hair and warm smile to say it would be alright because big sister is here now.

— Devery Taylor

AMETHYST

Amethyst we hear your cry
A firey purple shining in the sky
It shines through the heart of man Giving us strength and knowing that we can Oh Amethyst hear our plea
Give us courage to see Your stone color of light
Makes us stronger for the fight
Oh! mighty gemstone greater than the rest
Lay me down for my final rest.

— Devery Taylor

I CARE FOR YOU

I care for you in so many ways, wish I could have you all my days.

Hope our love will grow stronger and have you even longer.

I care for you with all my love it was sent from far above.

My love will always be there and I hope you will be to share.

— Barbie Dees

CLASS OF '86 REMEMBRANCES

The years have gone by so fast, and all of us have grown

Throughout the years our different, but unique qualities have shown

It seems like only yesterday we were playing 4-square on the playground

Now look at us, our parents we will all really astound.

You know this year all our dreams will come true

And it's time for us to say goodbye to the friends we knew

And soon time to go our separate ways, maybe never to return

To never see the teachers who taught us all we did learn

Well my friends this is the last year so may God bless you

For always may the light of life guide you in all you do

— Mary Bennett

We the class of "86"
Are not afraid of what lies ahead,
Or what has gone before.
If there is nothing in life
Left for us to know or learn,
We will review the early lessons
Yet again.
Alone is where we've always Felt our best.
The freedom to know
That we need no one
To take our hand and Show us the way.
For we know and believe
In ourselves,
And can believe in anything
That we may do.
We will succeed in life,
No matter how many failures,
We can overcome.
In every failure
We succeed
Because through failure
We will one day
Find our final success.
— Cathy Bingold

THE WORLD OF TODAY

The world of today is an awful sight even to the blinded eye.
It's the facts that we're afraid of because we know we're going to die.
Broken glass and shattered bones are all the cause of manmade stones.
Now the end is drawing near;
Now we begin to show some fear.
Unborn children yet to come;
they are the real unlucky ones.
Many die before their time in this world of war and crime.
Now we know what the world's coming to,
and now we wonder what we can do.
Let's stop this battle in its prime and end this period of war and crime.
— Chelin Woodrum

ONE DAY YOU WILL REMEMBER ...

One day you will remember that I was there for you but you always had something more important to do.

One day you will remember and say I said "Good-bye" but baby our love had died.

One day you will remember that my love would have always grown stronger but I could not bear you not caring any longer.

One day you will remember that I was always bearing because gone was your caring.

One day you will remember the memories always will I treasure the few days we had made measure.

One day you will remember me and all my loving care, but that day
I will not be there.
— Barbie Dees

ALMOST OVER,
NEVER GONE ...

As the sunset fades
We will reach a hand one to the other then share the love,
and feel the wind.
We can whisper a name or see a face
Remember a heart, a tear, a smile, a place.

The bond we've built will stay strong.
The love we share
will be long.

Almost over,
never gone.

When good-byes have come we will all lose a heart but the Class of "86" will never part.
— YuVonne Oglesby

Love is just another word;
A word like any other.
A word that means alot to some,
But overused by others.
Love is used for very good reasons,
But also when it isn't needed.
So why say it
If you don't really mean it?
— Angela Osteen

I CAN'T LET GO OF THE RAINBOW

He changed my life,
made it compelte.
Before I was scared and alone,
but then he comforted me.
He made me feel secure.
He brought laughs and smiles into my world,
I was happy,
But then someone came and swept him away
like the wind
on a cool autumn day.
Once again I was alone.
The happiness and love came crashing down and clouds covered my once beautiful sky.
The rainbow which colored my life was someone else's now.
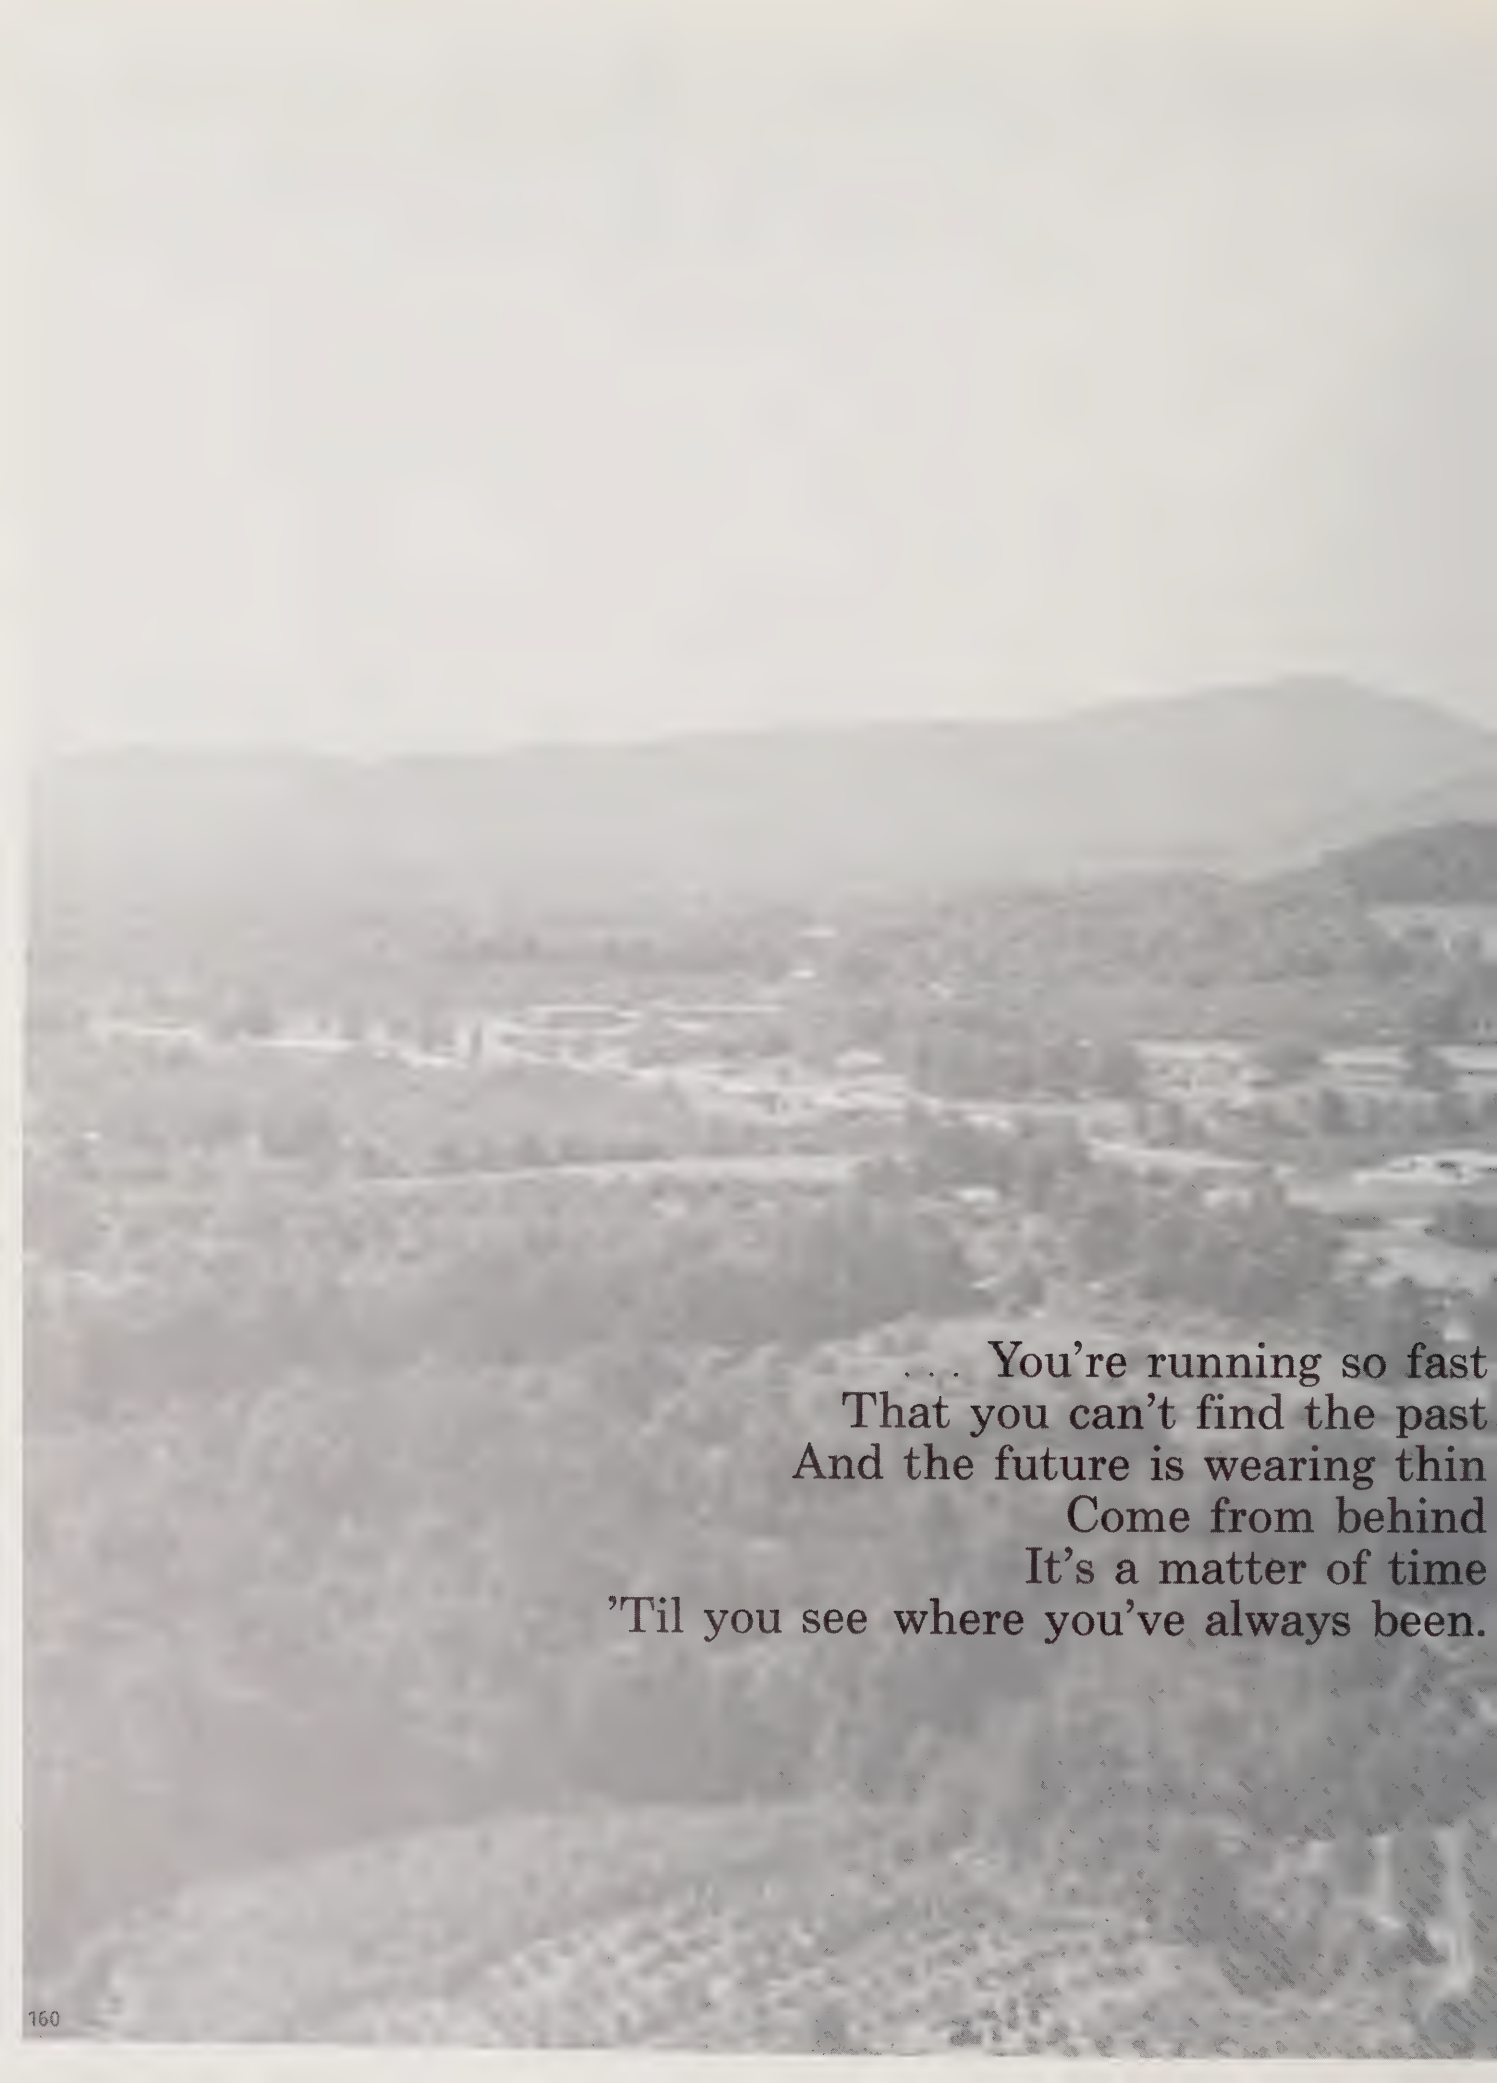
I've loved that rainbow
since the day we met,
and I need him to be mine
once again.
I have to keep reaching,
hoping and praying.
He is my love, my life
and my dream;
He is my everything —
I can't let go.
— Laura Mary Enloe



. . . You're running so fast
That you can't find the past
And the future is wearing thin
Come from behind
It's a matter of time
'Til you see where you've always been.
